Varsity Football

This was a big year for S.I. Football because for the first time in the 16 year history of the Central Coast Section, the Varsity Wildcats earned a playoff berth. This proud season began with an undefeated preseason, a solid 3-2-1 league record, and ended with a good showing in the C.C.S.

After outscoring pre-season opponents 105-22, S.I. entered the tough W.C.A.L. They opened with big rival St. Francis, losing a hotly contested game, 10-0. However, they rebounded the next two weeks, destroying Riordan 41-13, and Sacred Heart 52-0. In a game with serious effects on the playoff picture, the Cats battled Serra to a 0-0 tie, winning the California tie-breaker. After losing to Bellarmine, the Cats played what they thought was their final game, a 20-0 win over Mitty in the mud.

But by the means of the draw, the Wildcats were selected to be one of the at-large teams in the C.C.S. In S.I.'s premiere appearance, they beat previously unbeaten Los Gatos, 18-14. Their next game was a heartbreaking loss to Saratoga on a last-second field goal.

The long season came to a close, but it will long be remembered for the fine play of First Team All-Leaguers Joe Corey, Captain Joe Vollert, Captain Ralph Godoy, Paul LaRocca, and Paul Ravetti. Also who played fine seasons were Captain Steve Bluford, Matt Devine, and Perry McDowell, who all made Second Team All-W.C.A.L.

J.V. Football

The Junior Varsity team is an important part of the S.I. football program for many reasons. It is here that the younger players receive their last preparation before moving up to Varsity. It is here that they work on perfecting techniques learned in Freshmen year, and it here that they gain valuable game experience which benefits them over the next two years. But most of all, it is here that they hone the competitive edge which makes S.I. football the force that it has become.

Coach Shel Zatkin said about this year's J.V.'s, "They had good potential, good enthusiasm, and by the end of the year, they were very competitive in a tough league." Although their league record was only 3-3, they played strongly in all their games. They showed that in future years, S.I. football will be a force to be reckoned with in the W.C.A.L.

Frosh Football

Freshman Football is a time for learning. Most of the players have never played football before, and the first days of practice are controlled bedlam. Freshman year concentrates on the basics: blocking, tackling, running, and learning a new system. The freshmen must learn these now, to be successful later. How much the Frosh learned is more important than their won-lost record.

However, this year the freshmen had a winning percentage. After losing to St. Francis, they played one of the best freshmen games of all time against Riordan. Down 21-0 as they entered the locker room at the half, they came back to make the score 21-20 in the fourth quarter. After the ensuing kickoff, they got a safety on the third play from scrimmage to win the game. The enthusiasm from this game was to continue for the rest of the season, as the Cats went on to a 3-3 league record.

Varsity Cross Country

The one word that best describes the Cross Country program at S.I. is "devotion." Not only did the team begin training before the school year started, but they continued to follow a demanding workout schedule of nine miles a day for three months.

The team would often run in the morning before classes; this devotion is necessary to be successful in a sport like Cross Country, so each and every member of the team deserves credit for their time and effort.

This year, the Varsity had a respectable season with a good showing in the Artichoke Invitational and the Crystal Springs Invitational meets. They slowly improved with each meet as they prepared themselves for their most important confrontation, W.C.A.L. trial meets and finally the W.C.A.L. finals.

Under the impressive coaching of Julius Yap and Robert Graby, the Varsity Cats placed well enough in the league finals to advance to the Region I meet. They accomplished this feat under the leadership of captains Kieran O'Leary and Tom Grey. Also contributing greatly to this year's Varsity team were sophomores Kevin Riordan and Neil Fitzgerald, moved up for their exceptional athletic ability. Riordan also received the MVP award, while O'Leary was elected the Most Valuable Senior. This year's recipient of the admirable Riley Sutoff Award was senior Tom Grey. Undoubtedly, this Varsity team's dedication and devotion accounted for their proud season.

The junior division of the Cross-Country program at S.I. is made up of the unsung heroes of athletics. Their unending dedication to the sport is shown by their extremely difficult work-outs. The team practices with the varsity running both before and after school each day. The junior division teams are also emotionally demanding on the runners. Persistance and maximum effort are required while these young athletes prepare themselves for the varsity level. The Cross-Country program is especially proud of its sophomore and junior runners who were moved up to the varsity team. The future looks good for this young, talented group of men.

Varsity Soccer

For those who judge a sports season solely on the basis of wins and losses, the 1984 Soccer season was not one of the most successful seasons for St. Ignatius. However, records are not what athletics are about at S.I.; athletics are meant to build character, increase strength and stamina, and make men. In these respects, this season was one of the most successful in recent memory.

All year long the Cats were hit hard by injuries, including the untimely losses of Kevin McCarthy and Kevin Coffey. Even with these injuries, S.I. Attacked each contest gamely, and were in a position to win practically all of their games. The Cats kept their heads up and played like champions, no matter what the score.

But the 1984 Soccer season may be best summed up by one of the senior starters, "We may have had a poor record, but we came together at the end of the season. We showed our pride as a team by tying Bellarmine, the league champions, and beating Mitty, the runner-up, in our last two games."

Wrestling

This year was the debut sea- for the St. Ignatius Wrestling Team. In October, their enthusiastic coach, Ron Cisneros, rallied almost 50 students of varied class rank together for practice everyday. But serious injuries hampered the team, and its size gradually shrank. This did not, however, deter the spirit of the dedicated few who remained with the team. Inspired by their captains, Camozzi, Savarese, and Casamiro, the wrestling team completed a very successful season as a first year team on the amateur circuit.

The Frosh Basketball Teams are the foundation of the entire S.I. program. The Frosh level is where the young cagers learn the fundamentals of the game, and prepare to lead the Varsity of the future. It gives the fans a glimpse into the future, and if this year's Frosh teams are any indicators, the S.I. basketball program will continue its winning ways in the future.

The Frosh A team compiled a very successful 8-4 record, finishing second in the tough W.C.A.L. Although the team was led all season by the play of Colin Stretch, David Dioli, and Joe Solaney, the success rests on the team as a whole. The talent was practically the same from the first man to the twelfth man; for the first time in Coach Mike Thomas' seven years of coaching every player started at least once in the preseason. Coach Thomas had this to say about his team this year: "They were somewhat unpredictable, but they always played well under pressure. It was hard for them to put four good quarers together, but they usually played well enough to win."

As successful as the A's were this year, the B's were more successful in their own league. Led by the able coaching of Matt Barmore, the Frosh B team dominated the W.C.A.L. enroute to a 12-0 season. Even though the team had only average size, their intelligence and court sense more than made up for this. Good performances were constantly turned in by Kevin Williamson, Matt Cannon, Matt Prescott, and Peter Walsh; and Coach Barmore praises the bench for always being ready to play and giving a great deal of help. But Barmore credits the team's chemistry for most of their success: "More than any other group I've coached, these guys played together the best."

J.V. Basketball

The Junior Varsity Basketball Team had the kind of year people have come to expect from a Junior Varsity team; excellent. Led by sophomores Dan Vaughn, LeNorris Davis, and Martin Dioli, the team fought its way to a 9-3 showing, only one game out of first place. The J.V.'s coached once again by Steve Phelps, had a great mix of height strength, and speed; this group should contribute much to next year's Varsity.

This year's Varsity Basketball Team must be considered as one of the greatest teams in this proud history of S.E. Sports. Under the superb coaching of Bob Drucker, in his eighteenth season as Head Coach, the Cats breezed to a 10-2 preseason and were expected to win the league title. What they did was beyond all expectation: they steamrolled their first eleven league opponents by such scores as 90-62, 78-49, and 52-37. With a chance to become only the second team to go undefeated in W.C.A.L., they lost their last game of the season to Sacred Heart, 59-48. The next week they got revenge on the Irish by the same score. Although they had lost to Riordan, 61-56, in overtime, the Wildcats defeated the Crusaders in the Championship, 58-56. As this book goes to print, the Cats are preparing for their fifth straight C.C.S. appearance.

This year's team had as much talent as any team in recent history. 6'7" Levy Middlebrooks led the league in scoring (19.8 pts./game), rebounds (13 rebounds/game), and second in the FG percentages (0.687). Dan Oyharcabal was a deadly outside shooter, averaging 11.8 pts./game, and provided leadership at all times. Dave Wilson was the high-jumping forward who made the flashy and spectacular plays. Paul LaRocca and Joe Vollert were conservative steady players, who didn't score often but always hustled. Galen Sorrells, Dwight Skinner, Jason Standifer were always ready for the call to action from the bench.

How far will this team go this year? See the Spring Supplement.
